3. Not having the funds to retain an attorney to represent me in this matter, I must either forgo having a Jury decide my claims on their merits, or enjoin with this case filed by Arnett Thomas who appeared pro se, where he cited, Conley v. 4. In the spirit of the above referenced cases, I elected to organize with a vast class of Plaintiffs similarly situated and aggrieved with issues coming from COVID-19 and how former President Donald Trump exposed me to both physical and emotional damages and harm through his pursuit to manage COVID-19 through his natural herd immunity experiment.
5. For these reasons, it is my wish to enjoin with THOMAS v. TRUMP and seek to have a Jury award me compensation for the emotional damages and harm I suffered under Donald Trump's Presidency.

Not having the funds to retain an attorney to represent me in this matter, I must either forgo having a Jury decide my claims on their merits, or enjoin with this case filed by Arnett Thomas who appeared pro se, where he cited, Conley v. Gibson, 355 U.S. 41 at 48 (1957) Davis v. Wechler, 263 U.S., Elmore v. McCammon (1986) 640 F. Supp. 905, establishing the "Next Friend Rule," Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519 (1972), Jenkins v. McKeithen, 395 U.S. 411, 421 (1959), Pucket v. Cox, 456 2nd 233 and a long list of other cases, which Constitutionally entitles pro se litigants to air their Complaints in both Federal and State Courts.

4. In the spirit of the above referenced cases, I elected to organize with a vast class of Plaintiffs similarly situated and aggrieved with issues coming from COVID-19 and how former President Donald Trump exposed me to both physical and emotional damages and harm through his pursuit to manage COVID-19 through his natural herd immunity experiment.
5. For these reasons, it is my wish to enjoin with THOMAS v. TRUMP and seek to have a Jury award me compensation for the emotional damages and harm I suffered under Donald Trump's Presidency.
